

Adventuring with Mountain Tribes

Exploring lesser known but more colorful China destinations

DAY one

龙脊梯田

Hiking "The Dragon's Back"

The mountainous terraces of PingAn, shaped as the mystical dragon.

Roaming the 8 villages of ChengYang

With its functional "Wind & Rain"
Bridges and "Drum Towers".

DAY two 程阳风雨桥

DAY three

唐安生态村

Exploring TangAn

A living & working eco-museum village right in the middle of GuiZhou's imposing rice terraces.

DAY four

Rafting to the Shui (Water) people

Here we need to "flag" down a "local ferry" to cross the "mighty"
Du Liu Jiang (River).

DAY four

水族地区

DAY five

苗族姊妹节

Dancing with the "Long Horn"

Famous for their many festivals,
the Miao know how to have fun.

DAY six

"Jamming" with the Dong

The Dong are not only famous for their buildings, but also their music
using the lu sheng.

DAY six

侗族鼓楼

DAY seven

少数民族文化

Finding "masterpieces" in the hills

Little known to the outside world are the "primitive" paintings styles found amongst the tribes.
